REST

"Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." - Mt 11:29-30

JULY 9, 2017 · 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ON THE WAY....

Father Thomas Augustine Judge, C.M., part 3

These notes are based on an article written by Fr. David O'Connor, S.T. and published in the Vincentian Heritage Journal in 1985.

The men's community, the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity, were officially erected in 1929. The Sisters received canonical recognition in 1932, as the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity. Both institutes began to expand. The burdens of administration and the spiritual formation of the infant communities fell on Fr. Judge's shoulders. He traveled about to the various localities where the congregations were laboring and always reminded them to give primacy to the spiritual despite the pressing financial and material needs confronting them. His holy life and example, his inspiring conferences and exhortations helped develop a missionary spirit of the highest order. The movement expanded outside the United States by answering the call for missionaries in Puerto Rico, a new US territory after the Spanish-American War. Fr. Judge looked on Puerto Rico as the launching pad for an expanded mission in Latin America. In 1933, the doctors insisted he enter the hospital. After a brief visit with his spiritual sons and daughters, he offered his last Mass and entered the old Providence Hospital, Washington, D.C.. During the next three months he suffered silently and patiently. When visitors questioned him about his illness, he would turn the conversation away from himself and speak of the things of God or the great missionary work still to be done for people. His health worsened and he found it impossible to concentrate on his customary long prayers: "I have made a contract with God. All I have to say is: Jesus! I cannot pray as I would like, for I am sick -but Jesus understands." On the morning of November 23, 1933, he awoke, smiled and blessed the day as was his custom. Now a mere shell of a man and completely worn out by his years of uninterrupted missionary labors and poor health, he died peacefully. He was sixty-five years old.

Father Judge was a dedicated missionary, a man of faith and action. He disturbed the religiously complacent with his thoughts and plans concerning what more could be done for the Church and souls. So great was his zeal, his prayerfulness, his self-sacrifice and holiness that by word and deed he constantly spurred others on to a similar life. His avowed purpose was to make every Catholic a missionary. He pioneered the lay apostolate in the United States with a great foresight. He desired to help form an enlightened and dedicated laity who not only knew their faith and lived it, but would be zealous to share it with others. From this work with the lay apostolate there also developed two religious missionary congregations which continue to grow and prosper and thereby multiply and extend the work of this zealous priest. Since his death a secular institute was formed in his charism. The Missionary Cenacle Family (the religious and lay members together) is now serving in seven countries.

Peace,
Fr. John Edmunds, S.T

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

"We must not be taken aback by their numbers, but rather view them as persons, seeing their faces and listening to their stories."

—Pope Francis

Worldwide, there are 65.3 million people who have been forced out of their homes (with an estimated 34,000 people displaced per day). While the majority of forced migrants remain in their home countries, 21.3 million have been forced to flee and seek refuge in other countries. Over half of these refugees are under the age of 18.

ACTION: This month contact your legislators to welcome refugees to the U.S. and provide adequate funding levels to assist refugees worldwide. Call 202-224-3121 to connect to the Capital Switchboard.
