15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits.
The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

JULY 11, 2021

ON THE WAY.....

May the grace and peace of the Holy Spirit be with us forever.

If this were not a Sunday the Church would remember St. Benedict on this day. The monastic practice of praying at set times throughout the day established by St. Benedict has been formalized today in the Liturgy of the Hours. Here is the way the Bishops' website describes it. "The Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office or the Work of God (Opus Dei), is the daily prayer of the Church, marking the hours of each day and sanctifying the day with prayer. The Hours are a meditative dialogue on the mystery of Christ, using scripture and prayer. At times the dialogue is between the Church or individual soul and God; at times it is a dialogue among the members of the Church; and at times it is even between the Church and the world. The dialogue is always held, however, in the presence of God and using the words and wisdom of God. Each of the five canonical Hours includes selections from the Psalms that culminate in a scriptural proclamation. The two most important or hinge Hours are Morning and Evening Prayer. These each include a Gospel canticle: the Canticle of Zechariah from Luke 1:68-79 for Morning Prayer (known as the Benedictus), and the Canticle of Mary from Luke 1:46-55 for Evening Prayer (known as the Magnificat). The Gospel canticle acts as a kind of meditative extension of the scriptural proclamation in light of the Christ event. Morning and Evening Prayer also include intercessions that flow from the scriptural proclamation just as the Psalms prepare for it.

"The hymns and litanies of the Liturgy of the Hours integrate the prayer of the psalms into the age of the Church, expressing the symbolism of the time of day, the liturgical season, or the feast being celebrated. Moreover, the reading from the Word of God at each Hour (with the subsequent responses) and readings from the Fathers and spiritual masters at certain Hours, reveal more deeply the meaning of the mystery being celebrated, assist in understanding the psalms, and prepare for silent prayer." (CCC 1177)

The five Hours of the Divine Office are:

Office of Readings: The office of readings seeks to provide God's people, and in particular those consecrated to God in a special way, with a wider selection of passages from sacred Scripture for meditation, together with the finest excerpts from spiritual writers

Morning Prayer: 'I will pray to you, Lord, you will hear my voice in the morning; I will stand before you in the morning and gaze on you' (Ps 5:4-5).

Daytime Prayer: Following a very ancient tradition Christians have made a practice of praying out of private devotion at various times of the day, even in the course of their work.

Evening Prayer: When evening approaches and the day is already far spent, evening prayer is celebrated in order that 'we may give thanks for what has been given us, or what we have done well, during the day.'

Night Prayer: The Psalms that are chosen for Night Prayer are full of confidence in the Lord."

In the Most Holy Trinity,
Fr. John Edmunds, S.T

Hello All! My name is Reshma Sekhar and I am excited to inform you that I will be starting a group exercise class specifically for our senior parishioners (65 years and older)

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, many of us have been staying at home. While this has helped us keep safe, it has limited our walking, chances for exercise and social interaction. I am a Physical Therapist by occupation and have seen first-hand how these changes have led to decreased strength and changes in how well we move around.

To address these issues, I am offering FREE exercise class that will work on overall strengthening, flexibility and balance including with exercises that can be done from seated or standing levels, depending on your comfort and ability level.

I can have up to 10 people in a class given the size of the room, to ensure social distancing and safety.

Here are the details:

When: 3rd Saturday of the Month

Where: Basement of St. James

Time: 9:30 am - 10:15 am

Our 1st class will be the July 17th. If interested please reach out to me 551-208-7389 or reshma.shekhar@gmail.com. Looking forward to having some fun and getting stronger together!
